From: Patricia Allen
To: bffn@bipocfoodandfarmnetwork.org
Subject: REMINDER: Thurs. May 2: Policy Fellows Capstone Colloquium & Celebration
Date: Thursday, April 25, 2024 3:24:18 PM

ONE WEEK AWAY

Join BFFN, Agraria & Inspiring Outcomes
for the Policy Fellowship
Capstone Colloquium & Celebration!
Thursday, May 2, 6:00 p.m.
Gem City Market
Community Room
324 Salem Avenue Dayton, OH 45406
Light refreshments will be served
Please RSVP by April 29

The 2023-24 Cohort of the BFFN Policy Fellowship for Regenerative Farmers will present their capstone projects and we will celebrate their completion of the fellowship program. Along with the fellows, seminar presenters, special guests and fellowship staff and administrators will gather in the Community Room at Gem City Market to celebrate the successful completion of this pilot and extend our appreciation to the project partners and administrators Agraria Center for Regenerative Practice, Inspiring Outcomes and the Nature Conservancy.

--
Patty Allen (she/her)
Program Manager, BIPOC Food & Farming Network
Co-chair, Black Farming Conference planning committee
614-634-3368

Check out this Nature Magazine article about the BFFN 2023 Black Farming Conference