

Graduate Student Grant Writing Workshop

WHEN:                   Part 1 – March 17, 2020 5:00-7:00pm
                                  Part 2 – March 19, 2020 5:00-7:00pm

WHERE:               Online - ZOOM

INSTRUCTOR:     Dr. Mickie Swisher, FYCS Professor

AUDIENCE:       Any graduate student

SPONSOR:         Florida SARE

COST:               Free

REGISTER:       <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/graduate-student-grant-writing-workshops-tickets-96990781037>

- Two part hands-on workshop sponsored by the Florida Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education (SARE) program.
- Students from any department are encouraged to attend.
- Instructors discuss the keys to write a successful grant proposal.
- Each session covers different aspects of proposal writing - students should attend both sessions.
- This workshop specifically addresses the Southern SARE 2020 Call for Proposals for Graduate Student Grants.
- Projects must address issues of sustainable agriculture and are available to any graduate student enrolled full time.
- Proposals are for a one-time project maximum of $16,500.
- Projects may last up to three years.
- Proposals are due May 1, 2020 by 5:00 PM EST

Please contact Kaylene Sattanno at ksattanno@ufl.edu or 352-273-3530 if you have any questions.