

Sustainable Agriculture Workshop at the Tennessee Hort Expo: A collaboration of UT, UK, and KSU January 28, 2011

Agenda:

- 8:00-8:45 How do I become a certified organic producer: Michael Fitzgerald, Kentucky Department of Agriculture
- 8:45-9:30 Don't treat it like dirt: Learn how to manage your soil organically: David Butler, UT Plant Sciences Dept.
- 9:30-10:15 Weed management on an organic farm- A systems approach: Mark Williams, UK Horticulture Dept.
- 10:15-10:30 BREAK
- 10:30-11:15 Tomato Grafting: Tips, tricks and techniques to increase fruit yield and disease resistance: Cary Rivard, NCSU Plant Pathology
- 11:15-12:00 Farming with less fossil fuel: Michael Bomford, KSU Land Grant Program
- 12:00-1:00 Grazing Lunch (Free)
- 1:00-3:00 Working cover crops into your rotations and composting in organic farming: Daniel Parson, Parson Produce
- 3:00 End of training

This training is made responsible through grant funding from the Southern SARE Professional Development Program.