Table 20. Behavioral Change and Impacts

|                  | enavioral Change and Impacts                           |  |
|------------------|--|--|
| Percent of       |  |  |
| responden        | Debayiand shange                                       | Viold or Impact of Dahavianal Change   |
| ts79% | Behavioral change Encouraged others within their       | Yield or Impact of Behavioral Change 9 new collaborations; increased funding |
|                  | organization to reach out to include                   | for partners; work supported by other  |
|                  | new partners in their work and/or                      | agencies; new partners seek new grants                                       |
|                  | encouraged others outside their                        |  |
|                  | organization to include new partners                   |  |
|                  | in their work (n=33)                                   |  |
| 70%              | Applied what they learned from the                     | Growth in assistance network and project                                     |
|                  | workshop (n=33) (concepts applied                      | participation  |
|                  | include importance of collaboration                    |  |
|                  | and networking, planning, and                          |  |
| 58%              | communication  | 7 new collaborations with other  |
| 30%              | Forged partnerships with new groups/partners (n=33)    | organizations; 1 new major initiative  |
| 55%              | Think differently about the way they                   | Improved teamwork; become a better   |
| 3370             | do collaborative work (n=33)                           | collaborator; greater acknowledgement  |
|                  |  | of opportunities for working groups; and                                     |
|                  |  | improved branding of working group   |
| 39%              | Continued contact with at least one                    | Received a grant; information shared;  |
|                  | new person met at the CoP workshop                     | assistance with programming and  |
|                  |  | conference calls; new partners gained  |
| 38%              | Are doing collaborative work                           | New partners shoulder funding  |
|                  | differently since attending the                        | responsibility; shared leadership;   |
|                  | workshop (emphasizing strategic                        | improved work distribution/job delegation                                    |
|                  | thinking and recruiting more people in efforts) (n=32) |  |
| 38%              | Joined or became more actively                         | Expanded programming   |
| 0070             | involved in an existing CoP (including                 | Expanded programming   |
|                  | a healthy eating group, a regionally                   |  |
|                  | scaled staple food system, a farm to                   |  |
|                  | school group, food co-op association,                  |  |
|                  | soil health group, etc). (n=32)                        |  |
| 34%              | Applied for a grant that included                      | 6 out of the 11 (55%) received the grant                                     |
|                  | development of a new or                                | for which they applied   |
|                  | enhancement of an existing working                     |  |
| 31%              | group (n=32) Used the materials developed for the      | Problem of communication and working   |
| 31/0             | workshop in your work (n=32)                           | together resolved; others learn how to                                       |
|                  | workshop in your work (n=32)                           | effectively collaborate  |
| 25%              | Referred others to materials                           | Materials added to reference lists   |
|                  | developed for the workshop (n=32)                      |  |
| 24%              | Started or helped start a new CoP                      | New relationship with government;  |
|                  | (n=33) including a food access and                     | sustainability conference series   |
|                  | health CoP and a processing                            | developed  |
|                  | infrastructure CoP                                     |  |
| 20%              | Used CoP work to change or have an                     | More organized and diverse farmer's  |
|                  | effect on the natural or built                         | markets; more farmers growing specialty                                      |
|                  | environment (n=30)                                     | crops; better planning for the state's                                       |
|                  |  | processing infrastructure; more urban agriculture                            |
|                  |  | ayrıcullur e  |