

Hops Field Day & Tour

August 10, 2012

8am - 4:30 pm

$75 / person
includes lunch & charter
bus transportation

Pre-registration is required and space is limited

Participants will tour young and established hop yards on Old Mission Peninsula and an organic hop growing and processing operation near Omena. Local growers will be on hand to talk about all aspects of hop production: initial costs, plant care, disease & insect management, short and tall trellis construction and organic & conventional growing practices. The group will end the day with research updates and an educational beer tasting.
