

'Young Organic Stewards' Mini-Conference
Exclusively for young Farmers!

In conjunction with the largest organic farming conference
In the Midwest!

2011 MOSES Organic Farming Conference and Young Organic Stewards Program
February 24-26, 2011
LaCrosse, WI

Young people have always been at the heart of the MOSES Conference.
In partnership with Renewing the Countryside, the new Young Organic Stewards Program now honors them and collects their activities into exciting new programming. Targeted at individuals 18-25 years old who are interested or involved in organic Farming. Four workshops and two social activities are offered this year to hit hot topics Identified by our young farmer planning group.

Workshops:

Friday

Beginning Farmer Panel Hear from three very different successful beginning farmers
Acquiring Land Find Multiple options for farming your own land from young people who've done It

Saturday

Educational and Experimental Learning Opportunities College? Intern? Entrepreneur? Here from other's experiences who took various routes for learning

Planting the Seeds for the Young Organic Stewards Discussion on hurdles young farmers face and planning for our future

Social Activities:

Coffee Jam

Thursday - 8:30 pm

The Root Zone Coffeehouse Downtown LaCrosse

Cook and Connect with Local Foods

Friday, 6:30 - 8:00 pm

Radisson Center Kitchen

Regular conference admission gives you access to all the regular Organic Farming Workshops plus the Young Organic Stewards Workshops.

Scholarships Available!

Designated scholarships are available for young organic stewards (18-25). If you are interested, scholarship applications will be available Dec 1st. Scholarship recipients must attend 3 of the 6 special Young Organic Stewards' events.

Registration and conference schedule available December 1st
For more information: mosesorganic.org or 1-715-778-5775