

Figure 3. Visual characterization of rye aboveground biomass at key termination timings (from left to right):preplant; at soybean emergence (VE); and at anthesis. As the terminal treatment, anthesis always appears to the far right on graphs and may be labeled as VE+21, 39 days after first termination, or 21 DAE depending on the analysis.