

The Iowa Organic Association (IOA) and regional partners have developed a program to provide the information, tools and resources needed for agriculture service providers and consultants to support farmers interested in organic transition, diversification and expansion.

This full-day workshop will provide information from organic experts and presented resources about the National Organic Program, organic certification and transition, organic standards and production practices and insight into current organic market trends and demands.

The dates for the workshop are:

Tuesday, Feb 4 -- Mason City Public Library, Mason City

Thursday, Feb 6 -- Oakwood Road Community Center, Ames

Tuesday, Feb 11 -- Fairfield Public Library, Fairfield

Tuesday, Feb 18 -- Council Bluffs Public Library, Council Bluffs

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: NRCS, Extension, IDALS, FSA, SWCD, RC&D, County Conservation, crop insurance agents, farm lenders, farming organizations, farmers, agriculture educators and students, and others interested in learning more about organic opportunities.

REGISTER at https://www.iowaorganic.org/calendar or call 515-608-8622. There is a $20 fee to participate, and lunch will be included.
