

Increasing the Online Communication Toolbox for Sustainable Rangeland Management: A Train-the-Trainer Program

Gantt Chart:

Objective/Activities	2021		2022				2023
	Q3	Q4	Q1	Q2	Q3	Q4	Q1	Q2
Start Date: July 1, 2021
Project coordination meetings
Objective 1: Increase knowledge and capacity among the marketing cohort
Conduct a needs assessment to identify specific online marketing deficiencies
Attend intensive trainings focused on online marketing strategies with a marketing expert
Complete homework, as assigned
Summarize trainings
Objective 2: Design and implement online marketing campaigns
Collaborate to design online marketing materials to promote past, present, and upcoming programming and other sustainable agricultural activities with guidance from the marketing expert
Implement online marketing campaigns to engage stakeholders throughout the west
Objective 3: Increase online marketing knowledge and skills to the boarder rangeland community
Condense training summaries into marketing guide, seek examples and feedback within networks
Final edit of the marketing guide, including layout and publication, ensuring accessibility
Distribute marketing guide using new communication tools and strategies
Plan, coordinate, and publicize three rangeland community training webinars with the marketing expert
Create web page on Rangelands Gateway for the marketing guide, webinars, and related materials
Distribute/promote online marketing web page at the 2023 Rangelands Partnership annual meeting in Manhattan, KS and through the cohort's networks
End Date: June 30, 2023								