

GROWING ORGANIC EXPERTISE IN IOWA

The Iowa Organic Association and regional partners will deliver a series of organic workshops to provide the information, tools and resources to support farmers interested in organic transition, diversification and expansion.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Technical Service Providers

(IDALS, ISU Extension,
FSA, NRCS, RC&D,
County Conservation and SWCD)

Agency Personnel

Agronomists

Crop Insurance Agents

Ag Educators

Extension Staff

Farmers

Lenders

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN

An Introduction to Organic

Background about the National Organic Program

Organic Certification
and Transition Processes

Organic Standards and Production Practices

Organic Markets,
Trends and News

First-hand Experiences From Local Organic Farmers

WHERE

Tuesday, Feb 4
Mason City Public Library
225 2nd St SE

Thursday, Feb 6
Ames - Oakwood Road
Community Center
2400 Oakwood Rd

Tuesday, Feb 11
Fairfield Public Library
104 W Adams Ave

Tuesday, Feb 18
Council Bluffs Public Library
400 Willow Ave

COST $20

Space is limited! Includes full-day workshop and lunch.
Register at IowaOrganic.org or call 515-608-8622

Sponsored By:

