CUMBERLAND RIVER COMPACT

We are expanding the impact of the River Friendly Farms program with the introduction of a new course to help conservation-minded farmers succeed in the business of farming. "Terra Firma: A Six Session Course to Build Your Farm Business on Solid Ground" will kick off in January 2024. Expert instructors from across the region and the country will lead the sessions and cover keystone topics at the intersection of farming and business management.

This master class in farm business management will ready you for greater success in your farming ventures and help to navigate the unique goals and challenges of your farm.

Thanks to grant funding from Southern-SARE, this course is free to farmers. A limited number of stipends will be awarded to farmers in need to cover extraneous costs such as travel or childcare.
