EDUCATION

IOA is committed to developing and delivering programs and resources to expand knowledge, expertise, participation and interest within the growing organic industry through field days, workshops and webinars, organic research, organic resources, eNews and social media.

ADVOCACY

IOA serves as a unified voice advocating on behalf of Iowa's greater organic community. IOA's organic advocates help educate and work with Iowa's policy leaders and organic stakeholders to advance the interests of Iowa's organic community.

COMMUNITY

Strong partnerships, experienced mentors, shared knowledge and a culture of collaboration are critical for the expansion and success of Iowa's growing organic industry. IOA is supporting and strengthening the Iowa Organic Community through community outreach, events and field days, Iowa Organic Listserve and resource sharing.
