

Figure 2. The tillage and manure timing treatments in a 2 x 3 complete factorial design. Conventional tillage results in a rough soil surface whereas no tillage results in a smooth soil surface. The three manure timing treatments include an unmanured control, a December manure application to bare soil that later accumulates snow, and a January manure application to snow-covered, frozen soil.