

Pasture Management Field Day

- Learn best practices for rotational grazing
- Learn about pasture measurement tools from specialists
- Learn from other graziers

Wednesday August 15th

Living Song Farm, Jerry Ford and Mari ne Kreitlow

7616 25th Street SW, Howard Lake, MN

1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m

Rising Plate Meter

Sward Stick & Capacitance Meter

Falling Plate Meter

Who Should Attend?

- Beef/Dairy Producers, Goat/Sheep Producers, Horse Owners, Grazing Consultants

Speakers and Topics:

- 1:00pm – Welcome and Introduction
Rod Greder, Jerry Ford, Kent Solberg, Tom Gervais
- 1:15pm- Background on SARE Grant
Rod Greder U of M extension Educator
- 1:40pm Importance of Rotational Grazing-Best Practices and Benefits
Tom Gervais NRCS grazing specialist and Kent Solberg SFA livestock and grazing specialist
- 3:00 pm – Demonstration of Pasture Management Tools
Rod Greder U of M extension Educator and Jerry Ford-Grazier, SFA
- 3:45pm – Wrap Up
Rod Greder U of M Extension Educator
- 3:55pm – Questions

Potential Benefits

- Increase forage production
- Improve soil health
- Increase stocking rates

RSVP to Valerie McGoldrick: mccgo11@umn.edu, 763-682-7394, or online at: <https://z.umn.edu/3ltz> (FREE EVENT)