

Soil Health Breakfast

Thursday, December 12th, 7:00 - 9:00 AM

The Center, Colfax, WA (110 S Main St, Colfax, WA 99111)

Agenda

7:00 am | Breakfast is served!

7:30 am | Kurt Braunwart, Winter Pulses

8:15 am | Guided discussion

Speaker Bio

Kurt Braunwart

Kurt began his career as a fieldman for Rogers Seed Company in 1974 in Twin Falls, Idaho. In 1980, he moved to Colfax, Washington as Plant Manager and later to Othello, Washington as Operations Manager. In 1995, Kurt purchased and carried forward a dry pea breeding program from Rogers Seed Company. This business became ProGene Plant Research in 1996.

Kurt's interests and talents lie in business development as a bridge between research and marketing of varieties in the industry and leveraging strategic partnerships throughout the region. Kurt also established the nationally recognized brand of EverLeaf oats which matches high quality and tonnage in the same varieties.

National Association of Conservation Districts

DEPARTMENT OF ECOLOGY

Sustainable Agriculture
Research & Education

Check out the FLOURISH Podcast

Funding for this breakfast is supported by National Association of Conservation Districts, YouTube, and Washington State Department of Ecology, and Western SARE.

12.12.24 Soil Health Breakfast Participants

1 Alicia Leacox
1 Andrew Wolfe
1 Bradley Johnson
1 Bryan Jones
1 Carol McFarland
1 Chris Johnson
1 Chuck Jordan
1 Dennis Warnecke
1 Devin Eriksen
1 Elizabeth Sebo
1 Jackson Meyer
1 Josh Larsen
1 Josilyn Watson
1 KEN FUCHS
1 Kurt Braunwart
1 Larry L Cochran
1 Lauren Kirkpatrick
1 Lauren Stubbs
1 Michael Stubbs
1 Mike zimmer
1 Terry Travis
1 Jen Elliott
1 Tracy Eriksen
1 Glenn Johnson
1 Shane Duncan
1 Denise McCardle
1 Casey Lowder

Total: 27 participants