

Figure 2. Weight of twenty colonies managed by beekeepers kept at farms with prairie strips or farms without them (control). Each site type was replicated three times. Overall, the weight of colonies did differ significantly by site type ($P = 0.0160$). These colonies were managed by three different beekeepers. If honey was harvested from these colonies, it was removed between September 5-28, 2023 (region in orange circle).