

This is just an example of what can be done tracking sales and data. It can give farmers a clear picture and what platforms can be used. Also track sales of what farmer is selling and where. great for accounting and invoicing.