

Soil health, cover crops, nutrient management, and livestock integration field day

October 6th, 2015 @ 1:00 to 6:30 pm

Registration is FREE!

(Sponsored by NRCS, SARE and Nebraska Extension)

12:30 Registration @ 836 C Rd Palmyra, NE

1:00 Introductions and begin tour (Orrin Tryon and Mike McDonald)

- View cover crop plots and discuss species selection
- View soil pit and discuss soil biology
- Discuss grazing impacts

Travel to Douglas NE, Field site (immediately west of the Douglas Cemetery)

- View and discuss impacts of compost and crop rotation
- Discuss impacts of cover crops on weeds

Travel to Prairieland Dairy (13000 Pella Rd, Firth, NE)

- View soil pit and discuss soil physical properties
- View cover crop seeding method effects and rainfall simulation

5:00 Catered dinner-Further soil health discussion by Zac Riggs

6:00 Adjourn

Please RSVP by Oct 1st so that we can plan accordingly for dinner. To RSVP call Audra Goodin at 402-472-6486 or email audra.goodin@unl.edu. We cannot guarantee meals for those that register after this date.