2	We need targeted resources for both transitioning farmers and successor farmers that help either party better understand the concerns/interests of the other.	8/4/2014 1:15 PM
3	I would shy away from the networking calls. Though the topics and content were very good, I didn't care for the conference call method. It's distracting and difficult to follow who is responding.	8/1/2014 9:42 AM
4	narrower topics with more detail	7/31/2014 6:32 AM
5	more webinars	7/29/2014 9:05 PM
6	maybe provide a breakdown by state of resources for advisors on different topics related to farm transfer	7/29/2014 4:22 PM
7	The conference was great, but I find webinars a challenging way to learn about this kind of information.	7/29/2014 3:51 PM
8	Targeted webinars are good ways to learn	7/29/2014 2:44 PM
9	More case studies	7/29/2014 2:06 PM
10	no webinars please	7/29/2014 11:00 AM
11	a questionnaire for the beginner farmer asking them questions about their farming goals: land ownership, scale of desired business, organic or local, etc	7/29/2014 10:51 AM
12	I think it would be better to offer farm tours - go and meet families that have gone through transitions, etc.	7/29/2014 9:57 AM
13	Farm visits and case studies as part of the conference	7/29/2014 9:53 AM
14	More hands on seminars	7/29/2014 9:51 AM
15	More frequent interaction	7/28/2014 9:45 AM
16	seemed to elementary	7/26/2014 11:00 AM
