

The Nature of Agritourism Retreat

February 8 – 12, 2009 DeWitt, Arkansas

The Nature of Agritourism Retreat will be held in comfortable Delta home-style lodging. The lodge contains fireplaces, comfortable surroundings and great family stories. Sleeping arrangements include bunk and single rooms. All bedding, linens and towels are provided. Room assignments will be made based upon the conference registration male:female ratio. Your meals and experiences will be pleasant and memorable with the opportunity to visit with lodge owners about their agritourism experiences.

What to Bring....

- Boots (waterproof is best)
- Change of shoes
- Field clothes
- Warm clothes to layer
- Warm, moisture wicking socks
- Hat
- Gloves
- Waterproof or Water-resistant coat
- Binoculars
- Digital Camera
- Field Guides
- Cash
- Appetite
- Enthusiasm

Fowl Play Lodge

<http://www.duckguidesinc.com/index.php>

Map to lodge

<http://maps.google.com/maps?q=Angel+Ln.+Dewitt,+AR+72042,+USA&sa=X&oi=map&ct=title>

What to Leave Behind....

- Linens
- Pillows
- Sandals
- Bathing Suits
- Formal Wear
- Worry
- Hectic Pace
- PDA's and Daytimers
- Skepticism

Kathy Radomski, Workshop Coordinator

kradomski@pccua.edu

Cell phone: (870) 946-6426

Call if you have any questions or problems getting here!