

PHOTO ESSAY

PIONEERING COMMUNITIES CELEBRATING NEW DEAL RESETTLEMENT V

A COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP COORDINATED BY TUSKEGEE UNIVERSITY SUPPORTED BY
SOUTHERN SARE/SRDC AND USDA/RMA
FEBRUARY 17-19, 2010
GEE'S BEND, ALABAMA
HOST COMMUNITY

Calhoun School, Lowndes County

Old

New

Snow Hill Institute, Wilcox County

Teachers' cottages at Snow Hill Institute. Donald Stone, graduate of Snow Hill, civil rights activist and author signing his book "Fallen Prince" the biography of William James Edwards, the founder of Snow Hill.

Gee's Bend Ferry

Freedom Quilting Bee

Rennie Miller (l), Gee's Bend collaborator introduces the Freedom Quilting Bee to the other Resettlement Communities

FREEDOM

QUILTING

BEE

Pioneering Community Leadership, 2010

Gee's Bend, AL
Resettlement Community

Selma, Dallas County

National Park Service Selma to Montgomery National Historic Trail

Tent City, Lowndes
County, AL

Bob Mants, civil rights activist, Tuskegee staffer and tour guide standing in front of a photo of himself before marching on “Bloody Sunday”

Past Workshops: Training for Sustainable Community Development

Prairie Farms
Resettlement Community, AL
2004

Flint River Farms
Resettlement Community, GA
2006

Aberdeen Gardens
Resettlement Community, VA
2007

Mileston
Resettlement Community, MS
2009

Mound
Resettlement Community, LA 2009

