8:30-10:00 am: Season Extension Workshop

Learn about low-cost, low-fuel season extension technologies, including the use of unheated high tunnels, low tunnels, and row covers to grow hardy greens and other crops well into the winter. Hear from area growers using these technologies to profit from the growing demand for local foods at winter CSA's, winter farmers' markets, and year-round farmstands. Presenters: Skip Paul, Wishing Stone Farm; Ron Maribett, Colchester Neighborhood Farm; Will Traubel, Traubel Builders; Elaine Sinniger, Bejo Seeds.

10:00-10:30 am: Break

10:30 am-12:30 pm: Farm Transfer and Tenure Workshop

This workshop is designed to connect you with resources and help you along the way:

- ◆ If you are an established farmer thinking about passing on the farm.
- ◆ If you are a new, next-generation or future farmer.
- ◆ If you own land and would like to have it more actively farmed.

Hear from service providers with expertise in farm transfer and tenure and connect with other growers and landowners. Presenters: Cheryl Loranger, Farm Family Insurance; Kathy Ruhf & Bob Bernstein, Land For Good; Jon Jaffe & Briana Sheldon, First Pioneer Farm Credit; Neal Satran, Satran Law.

12:30-1:30 pm: Lunch Prepared by Mike Melo of M&C Café, New Bedford.

Over lunch: Updates on farm grant & cost-share programs from MDAR, NRCS, BCD, and others.

1:30-2:00 pm: Resource Fair: Get your questions answered and learn about new offerings from exhibitors.

2:00-3:00 pm:
