

www.ncat.org

www.cefs.ncsu.edu

www.southernsare.uga.edu

Energy Training for Agriculture Professionals (EnTAP) Application Form

Take as much space as you need. Text will scroll as you type.

Personal Information	Your Name
	Job Title
	E-mail Address
	Phone
	Cell Phone
	Address Line 1
	Address Line 2
	City, State, Zip
	University Affiliation
	Your Supervisor's Name
	Supervisor's Contact Info
Current Job Description	Briefly describe your current work responsibilities.
Motivation	Why do you want to attend this training? What do you hope to gain?
Energy Background &amp; Interests	Describe your personal and professional interests and experience related to energy.

Client Needs	What do you see as the most important energy information needs of the clients that you serve?
Proposed Training	Briefly describe the kind of energy training that you'd like to offer in your community.

Save your completed application and send it as an e-mail attachment to Carol Moore, carol.moore@bellsouth.net

Or mail to
 CEFS
 Attn: Carol Moore
 201 Stevens Mill Rd.
 Goldsboro, NC 27530

A supervisor's letter of support is required.

Have a supervisor fill out a Supervisor's Letter of Support form and send it to Carol Moore at one of the addresses above, by either e-mail or U.S. mail. The supervisor's letter may either be attached along with your application form or sent separately.

Applications and Letters of Support must be received by April 30, 2009.

Since 1976, the private, non-profit National Center for Appropriate Technology (NCAT) has been helping people and communities adopt technologies that save energy and protect natural resources. NCAT is committed to providing equal opportunities and access to all of its programs and activities. NCAT prohibits discrimination on the basis of color, race, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital, or veteran status. For more information, please visit www.ncat.org.