

Figure 4. Vertical view of the supplementation points and grazing pattern in the DLCN site. The black dots at the vertices of a diamond in the center are the plastic tubs. The diagonal distance between tubs is 20 m. Light colored lines are the trails created by cattle moving to and from the tubs.