

Please complete, print, and bring to farm visit in Goldsboro.

Organic and Hoophouse Production:
Practical Training for Agriculture Professionals

July 23, 2012 • Goldsboro, North Carolina

Presented by the Southern SAWG and Carolina Farm Stewardship Association

Supported by Southern Region SARE program and South Carolina NRCS

Pre-Training Survey

Are you? (check all the apply):

- NRCS Other Federal employee Conservation District State Dept. of Ag & CS
- NC Dept. Natural Resources Other State employee Extension/University Farmer
- Other: _____

What are your expectations for this training?

Please indicate your level of knowledge about the following topics:

1. Principles of organic farming:

Low

High

-

2. Practices of organic soil fertility management:

Low

High

-

3. Practices of organic weed and pest management:

Low

High

-

4. Decision making and profitability on an organic farm:

Low

High

-

5. Design and material choices for a hoophouse or high tunnel:

Low

High

-

6. Construction process for a hoophouse:

Low

High

-

7. Production practices and considerations in a hoophouse:

Low

High

-

8. Marketing and economic considerations in a hoophouse:
 Low High
9. Technical assistance needs of organic farmers:
 Low High
10. Technical assistance needs of hoophouse growers:
 Low High
11. Technical assistance needs of small acreage farmers:
 Low High
12. Technical assistance needs of limited resource farmers:
 Low High

Please indicate your level of confidence in your ability to help the following:

13. Organic farmers:
 Low High
14. Hoophouse growers:
 Low High
15. Small-acreage horticulture farmers:
 Low High
16. Limited resource farmers:
 Low High