

Figure 3. Field trial to test the efficacy to two non-antimicrobial therapies for the treatment of calf diarrhea. Calves meeting the case definition will be randomized to receive either oral electrolytes, or oral electrolytes mixed with one of the treatments. The proportion of calves requiring antimicrobials and not surviving to weaning will be compared between treatment groups.