

Organizations use a variety of strategies to promote and achieve farmland transfers. Within your organization, how important are each of the following services to supporting farmland transfers? - Land linking

- Negotiation of lease terms
- Financing for land seekers
- Easement purchases
- Equipment exchange
- Networking
- Personal/individual advising
- Distribution of own educational resources
- Distribution of others' educational resources
- Workshops
- Brokerage services
- Farm management services
- Lobbying
- Other (please specify)

Of the people who have work responsibilities with your organization's land linking program in 2012, please indicate whether each person is Paid Staff, Intern (paid or unpaid), AmeriCorps, Volunteer or Other, and the average number of hours they work for the land linking program per week. If more than 10 people, please include the 10 who worked the most hours.

Personnel Type

Average Hours per Week

Approximately what percent of your 2012 land linking program budget comes from each of the following categories? (Please enter whole numbers that sum to 100%.)

- Federal government grants
- State government grants
- Local government grants
- Foundation or private grants

- Individual donations
- Corporate sponsorships
- Program revenue
- Internal funding (i.e. through other programs)
- In-kind resources

What is your land linking program's 2012 operating budget?

What were the largest 3 expense categories of your organization's land linking program in 2012? (i.e. Personnel, Legal, Accounting, Travel, Office/Overhead, Website maintenance, Outreach, Marketing, etc.)

On average, how many land seekers join your program each year?

Approximately what percent of your program's land seekers are couples, single males and single females? (Please enter whole numbers that sum to 100%.) - Couples      Approximately what percent of your program's land seekers are couples, single males and single females? (Please enter whole numbers that sum to 100.)

What is the predominant age range of land seekers who join your program? (Enter as whole number range, i.e. 25-35)

Of all your program's land seekers, what percent would you estimate are looking for land parcels of the following sizes, at the time they join your program? (Please enter whole numbers that sum to 100%.)

- Less than 1 acre
- 1-10 acres
- 11-40 acres
- 41-100 acres
- 100-500 acres
- Over 500 acres

The USDA states that limited resource refers to any person with a total household income at or below the national poverty level for a family of four or less than 50 percent of county median household income in each of the previous two years.

Approximately what percent of your program's land seekers are limited resource individuals/families?

The USDA states that a farmer is considered 'socially disadvantaged' when the principal farmer or rancher is a member of a group whose members may have been subjected to gender, racial or ethnic prejudices because of their identity as members of a group without regard to their individual qualities.

Approximately what percent of your program's land seekers are socially disadvantaged?

Approximately what percent of your program's land seekers say they want to farm organically/sustainably?

On average, how many land owners join your program per year?

Approximately what percent of your program's land owners are couples, single males, single females and other? (Please enter whole numbers that sum to 100)

What is the predominant age range of land owners who join your program? (Enter as whole number range, i.e. 25-35)

Of all your program's land owners, what percent would you estimate offer land parcels of the following sizes, at the time they join your program? (Please enter whole numbers that sum to 100%.) - Less than 1 acre

- 1-10 acres

- 11-40 acres

- 41-100 acres

- 100-500 acres

- Over 500 acres

Approximately what percent of land owners in your program are at each of the following stages when they join? (Please enter whole numbers that sum to 100%.)

- Currently a farmer

- Previously a farmer

- Non-farmer private landowner

- Public landowner

Approximately what percent of your program's land owners say they want their land farmed organically/sustainably?

How many TOTAL matches have been made by your land linking program since it began?

Approximately what percent of your program's farm matches have been transferred through purchase, short-term lease, long-term lease or other. (Please enter whole numbers that sum to 100

When did you begin in your current position as land linking program coordinator.

Are you currently, or have you ever been, a farmer?

If you have any additional comments, please share them here.