

Survey Questionnaire with Aggregate Responses

Averages and percentages are presented in parentheses. Answers to open-ended questions were too extensive to present here, but can be found in the full graduate thesis.

Survey of Home Gardener and Farm Business Goals and Challenges

This study will help food producers and farmers like you meet your goals and overcome challenges by helping to improve projects that seek to address your needs. By filling out this survey, you help us gather important information that will help future projects to do the best job of addressing your goals and challenges.

For your responses to be useful, we need you to answer all of the questions. If you have comments, or would like to expand on your answers, please use the margins or the space provided at the end.

Please return this completed survey along with the green paper with your gift card choice in the business reply envelope (no postage needed) that we've included.

Thank you for your help!
