

Conference Schedule (Thursday Continued)

and rural Jim Dyer, Healthy Community Food Systems and SW Marketing Network

Lightning Session C [Room 400/402]

LC1 Food justice in farm to school programs
Zaundra Wimberley, Theodore Kozerski, and Bree Hietala,
Detroit Public Schools

LC2 Farms, cafeterias, and food security: Creating and fostering successful relationships throughout the food network Michial Russell, Pearson's Town Farm at Saint Joseph's College of Maine

LC3 Is your pension fund hurting your farm to cafeteria program? Rachel Nagin, National Family Farm Coalition

* LC4 Developing a food system: Limited resource/underserved growers to supply underserved markets
Cary Junior, Southeast Michigan Producers Association

LC5 Ward African Methodist Episcopal: Building community through sacred place Skip Wiener, Urban Tree Connection and Caroline Acheatel, Partners for Sacred Places

LC6 No more farming and fishing in the red - Let's pay farmers, ranchers and fishermen a fair price to bring more healthy, local and just food to our communities Daniel Teague, Mississippi Association of Cooperatives and National Family Farm Coalition

Eating food like you should

LC7 Removing obstacles to intercultural trust from the ground up: A university/community partnership to engage Cherokee Sekai Turner, North Carolina A&T State University

✓ LC8 Big district, little farms: How to find, purchase and promote locally grown foods from small, immigrant and minority farms Andrea Northup, Minneapolis Public Schools

* LC9 How produce seconds can feed America's children Bertrand Weber, Minneapolis Public Schools

Lightning Session D [Room 615AB]

LD1 Do you know your farmer, know your food?
Elanor Starmer, USDA

LD2 Enacting change and sustaining efforts in farm to school across various settings Amy Yaroach, Gretchen Swanson Center for Nutrition

LD3 The (surprisingly strong) economic case for locally sourced food in school meals Wendy Weiden, Independent Consultant

LD4 From farm to school to more: Delicious change for school food improvements Sunny Young, Good Food for Oxford Schools

LD5 What's the triple bottom line: Measuring social, environmental and economic progress in farm to school programs Arlin Wasserman, Changing Tastes

LD6 2014: International year of family farming Maria Miller, National Farmers Union

LD7 Farm-fresh food powers up brains: Using new science to promote old-fashioned food Dr. Drew Ramsey, Columbia University

LD8 Local or locale Mel Coleman, Jr, Niman Ranch

Lightning Session E [Room 616AB]

LE1 Why are we doing this anyway? Grounding a rationale for edible education in K-12 schools Jonathan Garfunkel, EduCulture

LE2 Putting up the harvest: Food processing as a venue to teach life skills and culinary art Chef Steve Jenkins, Saint Louis University

LE3 Partnering with cooperative extension to strengthen the farm to school movement
Matt Benson, USDA

LE4 A creative strategy to engaging the community: Bike tours! Sam Ullery, Office of the State Superintendent of Education, Government of District of Columbia

LE5 Celebrating seasonality: Strawberries and salad greens day Erica Steinhart, Office of the State Superintendent of Education, Government of District of Columbia

LE6 Education support professionals: An untapped source of power in the farm to school movement
Jon Falk, National Education Association

LE7 Salad bars need ambassadors Melissa Fontaine, School Food Initiative, Orfalea Foundation

LE8 Sprouts growing healthy habits: An expansion of a farm to school curriculum Brenda Koester and Meghan Fisher, University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign

*AFHVS/ASFS 2013 Annual Meeting
Toward Sustainable Foodscapes & Landscapes*

Drew Cranisky

"The Thunder of Agaricus"

Kelsey Sheridan

Wasabi Tales: Agricultural, culinary, and medicinal secrets

Beto Rincon

2G – Local Food Systems

Michigamme

Moderator: [SEEKING VOLUNTEERS]

Arizona Foodshed: Estimating Capacity to Meet Fruit and Vegetable Consumption Needs of the Arizona Population

Nicole Vaudrin and Christopher Wharton

Estimating the feasibility of local food systems using a Hamilton, Ontario case study: Towards a pragmatic localism

Lisa Ohberg and Sarah Wakefield

Developing a Local Food System: Utilizing Under served Growers to Supply Under served Markets

Cary Junior

Modeling Direct Marketing in the Northeastern U.S.

Rick Welsh, Amy Guptill and Erin Kelly

2J – Lightning Session 2

Auditorium

Hunting for Food in Environmental Ethics

Gretel Van Wieren

How Ethics are Framing Time and Space – An Organic Case

Bernhard Freyer and Pia Auberger

Epistemology of the "Improved Seed"

Elizabeth Mauritz

Consuming Ideologies

Deanna Pucciarelli

Cityscapes and Climate Adaptation: an Argument for Epistemological Dissensus

Farmers and Leaders of Tomorrow

*Microgreens, Aquaponics, and Education:
Various Approaches to Year-round Food Production and Curriculum for Schools*

Presenters: Gay Bingham, Seagoville High School
Aquaculture and Natural Resources Magnet; Adam Cohen, Green Phoenix Farms; Jesse Blom, Sweet Water Foundation; Tony Farrell, Hillery Farrell and Miguel Castro, Jr., Farmer Tony's Mission Greens

Room: WD Salon F

Food Policy, Sovereignty, and Procurement

Food for the People: Tactics to Claim Land and Increase Food Sovereignty

Presenters: Amy Laura Cahn and Kirtrina Baxter, Garden
Justice Legal Initiative at the Public Interest Law Center of Philadelphia; Paula Segal, 596 Acres; Shane Bernardo, Earthworks Urban Farm; Sophia Buggs, Lady Buggs Farm

Room: WD Salon C

Growing Green Economies

Newcomers to the Food System: Training Refugees and Veterans to Farm

Presenters: Jacqueline Ricotta, Delaware Valley College; and Meredith Walrafen, Catholic Charities of Northeast Kansas

Room: WD Salon A

Relationships Matter:

Broadening Community Partnerships

Growing Your Network and Your Net Worth with Mission-Driven Events

Presenters: Ami Freeberg and Hannah Hidaka,
Cultivate Kansas City

Room: WD Salon B

Urban Agriculture: Food In Action

* *SEMPA: A Cooperative's Effort to Preserve
Food Security in Urban Food Deserts*

Presenters: Cary Junior, SEMPA Farms

Room: WD Salon E

Urban Agriculture: Non-Stop City Crops

*Veggucated Activism: Using Education to Grow
Food and Communities*

Presenters: Germaine Jenkins, Fresh Future Farms; and Zsofia Paztor, Farmer Frog

Room: WD Salon D

Sponsor Spotlight

STATE
BANK of
CHILTON
A trusted partner since 1891