

Oregon Small Farms Olive Cold Hardiness Evaluation

In July 2021, a new cold hardiness evaluation of olive cultivars was planted at the OSU North Willamette Research and Extension Center (NWREC) in Aurora, OR. The planting site is gently rolling and in full sun, on a mix of Latourell loam and Willamette and Woodburn silt loam soils.

Cold hardiness plot in February 2022.