

Figure 2. Several incidents of crop damage (hemp in left side and soybean in right side) by wild animals were reported, significantly affecting plant growth at the Long Pond, PA location in 2024 due to the lack of fencing.