Q5 - At this point, is there anything we can do to help better facilitate this program

At this point, is there anything we can do to help better facilitate this program

Not that I can think of.

No

I will be setting up a meeting with Blake to do this. We both have been very busy with programming. We are collaborating on several projects. Looking forward to working with him. I appreciate the reminders that are sent. They are very helpful as well as the presentations, etc. Tracy

Beer.

Do we have a project we are supposed to be working on together at some point?

Keep checking in every now and then :)

No, I think the program is effective as is.

No not really.
