

GRAZING FIELD DAY AND ICE CREAM SOCIAL AT THE PLEW FARM

Tuesday, July 23rd - 12:30 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.
1966 Healdville Rd, Mt. Holly, Vt 05758

Join us at Plew Farm, a diversified livestock farm owned and operated by Kevin and Patti Plew, for a pasture walk and ice cream social. The Plew's will share with us how they manage all of their livestock—beef, pigs, and poultry—on pasture and are utilizing rotational grazing principles.

Some of the products produced by the Plew Farm include: grass-fed beef, pasture-raised pork, broiler chickens, eggs, and turkeys. Come learn how they manage multiple species in a pasture-based system.

We will also discuss this year's weather challenges and share strategies to preserve pasture quality.

There is no charge for this event.
