

Rocky Mountain Bird Observatory presents:

BIRDS AND MANAGEMENT DECISIONS IN THE SAGEBRUSH ECOSYSTEM

Photo by: Bill Schmoker

Learn more about:

- Identification of birds in the sagebrush ecosystem
- Habitat relationships of sagebrush birds
- How to manage for sagebrush bird habitat
- Additional decision-making power with a new Decision Support Tool

SAVE THE DATE!

for these FREE all-day workshops for resource professionals and landowners

- March 26th: Craig, CO American Legion
- March 27th: Rawlins, WY Jeffrey Center
- April 22nd: Gillette, WY The Fire Department Training Center
- April 24th: Lewistown, MT The Calvert Hotel

More details to come! Please contact Laura Quattrini (laura.quattrini@rmbo.org or 970-482-1707 ext. 21) to get more information and to RSVP. Funding and assistance provided by:

Tentative agenda:

7:45 – 8:00AM	Registration/ Coffee - donuts
8:00 – 8:15	Welcome/ Introductions/ Group intro's
8:15 – 8:25	Purpose of workshop/ Agenda
8:30 – 9:00	RMBO Science – IMBCR – Bird-Habitat relationship models
9:00 – 9:30	Avian ecology
	10 minute break
9:40 – 10:40	Bird ID
10:40 – 10:55	Sagebrush management actions – Sage-grouse Conference report
10:55 – 11:20	Ecological Site Descriptions – how they fit into the tool
11:20 – 11:55	Overview of Decision Support Tool (DST)
	LUNCH provided
1:00 – 2:30	Land management examples using the DST
	10 minute break
2:40 – 3:40	Questions / Feedback
3:40 – 4:00	Workshop Survey