

Figure 2 - Total cover crop biomass and total N uptake for rye monoculture and rye-crimson clover mixture. Bar plots with different letters above indicates significant differences in biomass or N uptake between landscape positions. There were no differences between the mixture and rye cover crop treatments except in the biomass of HC1 (2019).