

Wisconsin Cover Crop and Soil Health Research - Webinar Series by Cover Crops in Wisconsin Team

DESCRIPTION

This FREE webinar series will highlight the latest Wisconsin research on cover crops and soil health. The series will be 6 weeks long, every Wednesday from 12pm-1pm (except for the week of February 7 - that webinar will be 12pm-1:30pm). Connection information for the webinar will be provided upon registration available at: <https://tinyurl.com/covercropwebinar>

Topics and presenters:

Week 1 - January 17:

Reducing Erosion and Improving Water Infiltration with Cover Crops and No-till

Laura Ward Good, UW-Madison Soil Science

Francisco Arriaga, UW-Madison Soil Science

Week 2 - January 24: Cover Crops after Corn Silage

Heidi Johnson, Dane County UWEX

Kevin Shelley, UW- Nutrient and Pest Management Program

Week 3 - January 31: Cover Crops after Wheat

Jim Stute, Michael Fields Agricultural Institute

Mike Ballweg, Sheboygan County UWEX

Week 4 - February 7: Grazing Cover Crops and Using Cover Crops as a harvested Forage

(please note longer webinar 12pm- 1:30pm)

Gene Schreifer, Iowa County UWEX

Jason Cavidini, Marshfield Agricultural Research Station

Wayne Coblenz, USDA Dairy Forage Research

Week 5 - February 14: Interseeding and Overseeding Cover Crops into Standing Crops and Spring Seeding of Cover Crops

Dan Smith, UW- Nutrient and Pest Management Program

Brian Briski, Natural Resource Conservation Service

Heidi Johnson, Dane County UWEX

Week 6 - February 21: Soil Health

Jamie Patton – UW-Nutrient and Pest Management Program

Matt Ruark - UW Madison Soil Science

For more information contact Heidi Johnson

Dane County UW-Extension

608 224-3716

heidi.johnson@ces.uwex.edu

