

January 2023 Pre-project survey

Q1. What do you think is the barrier to recycle runoff water in nursery and landscape operations (73 respondents)?

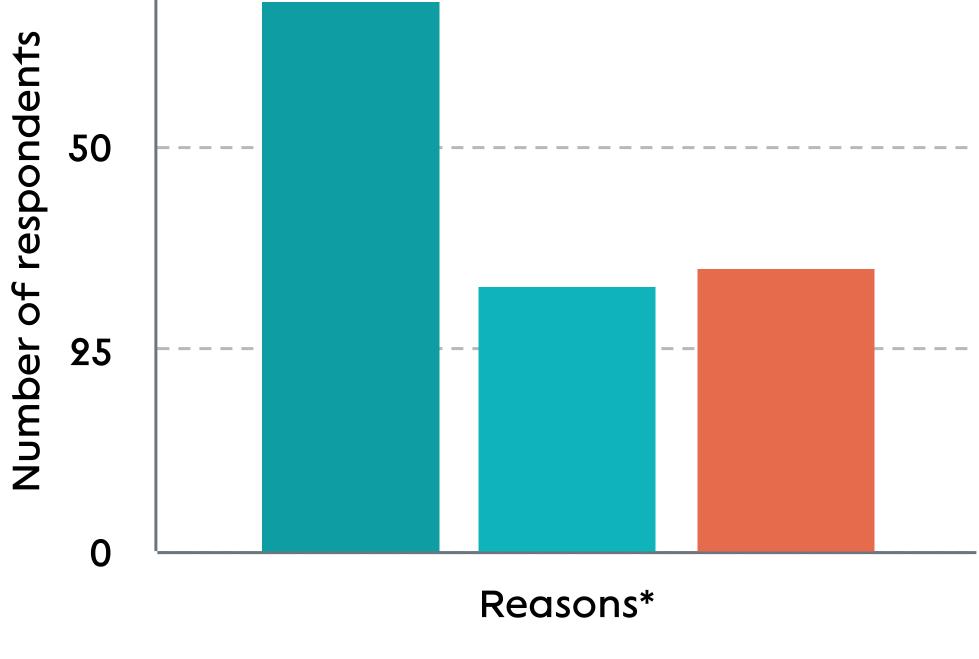

Lack of knowledge/training
 Lack of time and labor
 Water prices is not high enough to justify

Water prices is not high enough to justify

Cost of installation is expensive
Others

*some respondents selected multiple answers

Q2. Why do you think retaining and recycling runoff water is important in nursery and landscape industry (73 respondents)?

Scarcity of freshwater for irrigation
 Runoff may cause environmental pollution
 To lower water bills *some respondents selected multiple

answers

Q3. What is your confidence level in either installing or providing guidance on the installation of water recycling systems in nursery and landscape operations (66 respondents)?

Average confidence level (%)

Q4. Have you ever attended any nursery/landscape water recycling training in the past (73 respondents)?

Q5. Do you retain and/or recycle water at your site (50 respondents)?

Q6. How willing are you to adopt water recycling (50 respondents)?

